

September 12 and 13

Hennepin Hundred Ultra Marthon

100 miles of trail on the historic Hennepin Canal trail in the heart of Illinois. Flat & fast! A new Ultra, it will be the first running for an Ultra Marathon run along the Hennepin Canal in northwest Illinois. The event will begin and end in Sterling, Illinois and run through Whiteside, Bureau, and Henry counties countryside. It is a 2015 Trail Runner Magazine Trophy series race and will feature a 100M and a 50M ultra trail run. Surface is pressed rock, asphalt, and dirt. A 30-hour cutoff applies and aid stations will be every three to seven miles. This features a point to point race with 100 and 50 miles solo entries and a five-person relay team entry. Belt buckle will be given to the first 100 miles finishers. Artist made trophy to first overall male and female winners and age group awards will be three deep, with 10 year age spans. February 29 is deadline for entries at low prices. Prices increase after the 29th.

The Hennepin Hundred is part of the Ultra Slam 2015.

There is plenty of information that you can share up on the interwebs:

Hennepin Hundred registration and info: <https://ultrasignup.com/register.aspx?did=29711>

Easier link to tell people: <http://muddrunner.com>

Hennepin Hundred on Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/hennepin100>

Illinois Ultra Slam on Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/IllinoisUltraSlam>